

PSYCHOLOGY A LEVEL

WHY CHOOSE PSYCHOLOGY @ BRIDLINGTON?

- Understand the science behind behaviour
- Develop a range of valuable skills and independent thinking
- Many fascinating career paths

Entry criteria: Average of Grade 5 in all your subjects, a Grade 5 in Maths and a Grade 6 in English.

You will learn important historic and contemporary studies in social, cognitive, developmental and biological psychology as well getting a chance to study and put into practice a variety of research methods used across all fields of psychology. In addition, the course allows students to delve deeper into the field of Health Psychology and choose from cutting edge applied psychology areas including child, criminal, environmental and sport and exercise psychology.

“IT’S NEW
× AND EXCITING”
×

WHERE CAN PSYCHOLOGY TAKE YOU?

Psychology is a subject that teaches you valuable skills that are essential across a number of careers such as teaching, the police force and business. Further Education pathways in psychology can lead to exciting jobs specialising in areas such as forensic, clinical, developmental and neuro psychology.