What drives population change? How can we affect issues such as flooding? Find out in this engaging and varied course. Assessment is through both written examinations and an independent fieldwork investigation.

A photograph of a female teacher with long blonde hair, wearing a black blazer over a dark green shirt, smiling as she looks at a blue 'AQA Geography A Level for AS' textbook. Two male students are looking at the book with her. The student in the middle is wearing a white t-shirt with 'SUPREME' and a picture of fruit. The student on the right is wearing a camouflage t-shirt with 'VANS' written on it. A red speech bubble with a white circle at the top right contains the text: "IT'S SUCH AN IMPORTANT SUBJECT. GEOGRAPHY ISSUES ARE IN THE NEWS EVERY SINGLE DAY!". A blue 'X' is positioned below the speech bubble. The background shows a classroom with a map and a poster.
